Project Name

Connecting Communities:
Wirraringa Loop Trail

Starts: 29th May 2017

Project Description

This project will construct a new 300m section of trail, as well as upgrade and maintain an existing 3kms within Brownhill Creek Recreation Park. The project will also restore habitat for the nationally threatened Southern Brown Bandicoot and rehabilitate Grey Box Grassy Woodland by removing weeds and planting native species. Participants will work closely with a range of project partners involved in cultural heritage, education, environmental restoration and nature-based tourism.
