

Kurna Shelter Tree – Willawilla Karra Kuu – Governor's Visit

Monday, 8 April 2024 – Entrance to Brownhill Creek Recreation Park – Event 10.30am to 11.30am

Running Sheet

Time	Activity	Notes
9.00am-10.30am (1.5 hours)	Firesticks Alliance Set Up	Firesticks Alliance team including Clem Newchurch, Quahli Newchurch and Paul Dixon will set up for a demonstration Cultural Burn in an area of Kangaroo Grass (on the slope opposite Willawilla Karra Kuu, between Brownhill Creek - Willawilla and Northbrook Avenue). Brett Williams (DEW) and his team will be on-site.
10.30am – 10.45am (15 minutes)	Welcome to Country & Introductions	Quahli Newchurch (Firesticks Alliance): Welcome to Country & Introductions.
10.45am – 10.50am (5 minutes)	Overview of Kurna Shelter Tree Project	Ron Bellchambers (Brownhill Creek Association: Project Manager) will give an overview of the Kurna Shelter Tree Project.
10.50am – 10.55am (5 minutes)	Kurna perspective on Willawilla Karra Kuu	Auntie Lynette Crocker (Ngangki Burka: Senior Kurna Woman) will share her perspectives on Willawilla Karra Kuu and the Kurna Shelter Tree Project.
10.55am – 11.00am (5 minutes)	Talk: Cultural practices returning to Country	Her Excellency the Honourable Frances Adamson, Governor of South Australia will talk about her role in supporting Cultural Practices Returning to Country .
11.00am – 11.30am (30 minutes)	Firesticks Alliance: Demonstration Cultural Burn	Clem Newchurch (Firesticks Alliance) will talk about Cultural Burning and conduct a demonstration with the Firesticks Alliance Team (weather permitting). Walk on Country* *Suitable footwear required

Organiser Ron Bellchambers: Brownhill Creek Association Community Engagement Officer and Project Manager (M) 0427 718 106 (E) brownhillcreek@gmail.com